CONSOLIDATED CARPET INSTALLS FLOORING IN THE PEDIATRIC ONCOLOGY TREATMENT/FAMILY ROOM AT ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL FOR THE "GEORGE TO THE RESCUE" TELEVISION SERIES ON NBC

NEW YORK—November 9, 2010 – Consolidated Carpet (Consolidated) was featured on the October 23, 2010 episode of “George To The Rescue” on NBC after providing linoleum flooring in the Pediatric Oncology treatment/family room at St. Joseph’s Hospital in Paterson, NJ.

Consolidated and its vendors, Armstrong & Mannington among others, donated time and materials to install the linoleum flooring in a sunburst pattern with colorful rays streaming out from the sun’s core. The room creates a cheerful, fun environment where adolescents with cancer can be comfortable while receiving treatments and spending time with their families. The theme for the room is earth, wind, water, sun and you. The room features personal artwork from the patients as well as Apple iPads, a fish tank and comfortable chairs. Consolidated was selected by Sweet Construction Group for the project.

“The Consolidated team is proud to be donating our time to give these kids a positive, comfortable space of their own at St. Joseph’s,” said Lou Pisani, Account Executive, Consolidated Carpet.

The show “George To The Rescue” is a spinoff of the “Open House NYC” LXTV real estate show. The show features host George Oliphant and his crew as they assist homeowners or organizations with a design dilemma for needy recipients. Past features on the segment have included firehouses, bathhouses, studios and homes.
