NEW YORK, N.Y. – August 8, 2013 – Consolidated Carpet proudly announces the recent honoring of their President and CEO, David T. Meberg, at the St. Francis Food Pantries & Shelters' 15th Annual Golf Outing & Pool Party Fundraiser on July 29, 2013.

Mr. Meberg and Consolidated Carpet have been supporters of St. Francis Food Pantries & Shelters for a number of years, frequently coordinating and participating in fundraising events for the local non-profit. "St. Francis Food Pantries provides essential services for those less fortunate than us throughout the N.Y. Metro Area," said Mr. Meberg. "I am privileged and humbled to be honored by such an important organization."

The 15th Annual Golf Outing & Pool Party teed off at the Bonnie Briar Country Club in Larchmont, New York. The fundraiser, hosted by Jim Phillips of TPG Architecture, was well-attended by many in the construction, design and real estate industries. With the backing of these numerous supporters, the event raised over $350,000 for St. Francis Food Pantries & Shelters.

St. Francis Food Pantries & Shelters serves the poor in local communities by providing shelter, food, clothing and counseling to support the emotional and physical needs of the less fortunate. The organization serves over 1.2 million meals each year throughout 22 non-profit Food Pantries, Soup Kitchens, Safe Havens, Drop In Centers and Shelters supported by St. Francis Food Pantries & Shelters throughout Manhattan, Brooklyn, Bronx, Long Island, Westchester and New Jersey.
